

Privacy Policy Statement

Precision Surgical Ltd is committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of its customers, suppliers, individuals and visitors who come into contact with the Company.

Personal Data may be collected on paper and/or stored electronically. Personal Data is stored and dealt with appropriately, in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Personal data is information by which an individual can be identified.

Precision Surgical Ltd does not supply customer details or personal data to other companies and businesses for marketing, commercial or any other purpose (unless legally required to do so). The data is solely used by Precision Surgical Ltd for commercial purposes only (advertising, marketing and public relations)

The Data Controller is Precision Surgical Ltd. All employees are trained to comply with GDPR regulations.

Data Collection

Data can be collected by Precision Surgical Ltd in various forms, including in person, post, email or website visit. This information is held securely in compliance with the GDPR. Individuals can contact Precision Surgical Ltd to request to be removed from all records held by Precision Surgical Ltd.

Data Storage

We use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access of personal data from our systems. All data is securely stored on cloud-based servers and in accordance with this Privacy Policy. Personal data is only accessed by authorised employees.

Data Access

Individuals have the right to request any personal data held by Precision Surgical Ltd. This will be made available in a timely manner. The Data Controller will provide a permanent, intelligible copy of all the personal data about that Data Subject held at the time the application was made.

Please contact the Data Protection Officer for any issues relevant to GDPR to Mr. Julian Parker, Managing Director, info@precisionsurgical.co.uk

Signed: J Parker

Date: 21st October 2024

Julian Parker
Managing Director